PRACTICE AREA

PERSONAL INJURY

Pender & Coward personal injury lawyers represent individuals who have suffered serious injuries or life-altering disabilities which resulted from someone else's negligence. Whether you were hurt in an automobile, truck, motorcycle or boating accident, or at a nursing home or in the workplace, we can help. From car accidents to medical malpractice and wrongful death, we fight for the best result in every case, every time. We never forget that our client's well-being comes first.

Pender & Coward attorneys know the laws that apply to personal injury accidents. We understand accident-related injuries and may recommend specific care and medical tests for our clients that can impact a settlement and a future medical outcome.

Our experienced attorneys ensure every case is handled in the most advantageous manner. Though always prepared to go to court, we understand the sometimes complicated process of obtaining a settlement and how to negotiate with insurance companies and defense lawyers to get the fairest compensation for our client's pain, injury, and suffering.
